

Chalet Le Daray Verbier, Switzerland

What we love...

We love the way Chalet Le Daray combines the Va-Va-Voom of a penthouse suite, with the first class services of a catered luxury ski chalet. Not only is it easy to ski back to, this chalet also comes with a private ski instructor for two days.

Sitting by the foot of the piste, Chalet Le Daray is in the perfect position for après ski drinks in the Le Rouge bar before stumbling home to wallow in luxury. If you like the idea of a big penthouse apartment, and you love all the extras you get in a five star catered chalet, then try this one for size.

After being welcomed by your host and introduced to your private chef, it's time to step out on to the balcony with a glass of Champagne to admire the view. And what a stunning view it is. Laid out below Chalet Le Daray is the charming town of Verbier, surrounded by magnificent snow-swept mountains.

When the alpine chill starts to bite, you can hunker down on the big soft sofas in front of a blazing fire in the living room. Chalet Le Daray's high, vaulted ceilings and expanses of solid wood give it a hunting lodge vibe with a light, modern twist. Beautiful wool plaid curtains in warm tones add a homely finishing touch.

This is a penthouse apartment where you can live like a Lord. Mornings are a joy when someone else is there to make you a fresh coffee and cook your eggs just the way you like them. Gather up your family and friends for another great day in the snow and take the lift down to the ski room without a care in the world. Whilst you are out, the chalet will be tidied and cleaned, and the chef will prepare more delicious morsels for your delectation.

Being only a five minute walk to the centre of Verbier and ten minutes to the Medran lift, Chalet Le Daray feels very accessible. The interior space, all on one level at the top of this handsome building, is charming and luxurious. But what takes it to the next level is all the lavish extras on offer. For example, the services of a private ski guide are yours for two days of your stay, all your arrangements can be made by the concierge service, and the bathrooms are stocked with luxury toiletries. Magic.

Chalet Le Daray

Rooms

Chalet Le Daray sleeps up to nine people in four bedrooms. All bedrooms are at the rear of the building and three have access to a balcony. There are wall-mounted flat screen TVs in every room and all have en-suite bathrooms.

One bedroom is the Master suite, a second room has twin beds, the third room has queen sized bunk beds, and the fourth is a family room with a double bed and mezzanine level for a second bed.

Eating

The food and drink at Chalet Le Daray is of the highest quality. Fresh, local ingredients are prepared by your experienced chef, and a choice of specially selected house wines is served every evening. There's even a drinks tray with two bottles of spirits included, to keep the party spirit alive.

Your day begins with a cooked breakfast and an array of tempting treats from the bakery. Just allow yourself to be spoilt and leave all the clearing up to the chalet staff. Your job is to relax and enjoy the self-indulgence of it all. Later, after a hard day's skiing, you will be welcomed by the aroma of delicious sweet and savoury snacks at tea time, served with refreshing hot drinks.

Dinner at Chalet Le Daray is an experience to be savoured, starting with Champagne and canapés as you and your guests converge in the living room. You then take your places at the large dining table where three tasty courses are served, followed by a cheeseboard. Over indulgence is always a danger, but you are on holiday so give yourself a break.

On one day a week the staff take a well-earned day off, so guests have the option of dining out at one of Verbier's many great restaurants, or cooking for themselves. The chalet host will be happy to advise on the best places to eat or to order a takeaway, and can handle any reservations.

If you don't want this fully catered option, Chalet Le Daray can also be rented on a self-catering basis.

Kids

Your children will be well looked after at Chalet Le Daray, and if they are happy, then you're happy. Centrally located and well equipped, the chalet makes a great family base and is easy to get to from the slopes. With a private chef in the kitchen, you don't have to be constantly planning the next meal, and even the fussiest eaters can be catered for.

Just let us know if you would like to book children's ski lessons, or arrange to hire equipment and your chalet host can ensure that everything is sorted out for you. Don't forget that you have a private ski guide for two days of your stay, perhaps for some intensive tuition for the kids, or perhaps just for you. All the stresses and strains of organising family life can be taken from your shoulders, so you can spend quality time with the children.

For kids who don't ski yet, Verbier has plenty of exciting activities, from the sports centre swimming pool to the ice karting rink, and the chalet staff can give you all the local information. They can set you up with cots and high chairs for little ones, and childcare is no problem either, whether you require a professional, English-speaking nanny or the occasional evening of babysitting.

Please note that toddlers will need to be supervised around the loft ladder in the dining area.
