

The Chedi Hotel Andermatt, Switzerland

What we love...

We love The Chedi Andermatt's wonderful design and good looks, from its extraordinarily comfortable rooms to the super-stylish bars and restaurants and luxury spa.

Since opening in 2013 The Chedi Andermatt has already become something of an institution. A world-class luxury ski hotel, it's been awarded countless honours for doing what it does best – providing a simply magical break for those who love the finer things in life as much as they love to ski.

The Chedi Andermatt is an exclusive five star hotel in the pretty town of Andermatt. Encircled by mountains, there is top notch skiing on every side and the hotel itself is perfectly located.

The hotel is a beautiful blend of traditional Swiss design and Asian influences – from the renowned Japanese Restaurant to the zen-like day spa. Each of the relaxing, luxury rooms and suites is equipped with everything you could wish for in a beautiful snowy bolthole. Natural woods and stones give the rooms rustic appeal and fires and soft leather armchairs bring a touch of hygge to your evenings as you settle down for bed.

When you aren't out on the slopes, accompanied by one of the hotel's dedicated ski butlers, who will see you to the snow with all your kit, there is plenty to entertain you at this luxury ski hotel. The day spa is second to none and has become a destination in itself locally. You'll leave the spa feeling not just rested and relaxed but like a whole new person – no matter how many sakes you had the previous night and how hard you took the slopes that morning.

One of the highlights of a stay at The Chedi Andermatt must be the food and drink. Enjoy a Michelin star Japanese gourmet feast, a long and leisurely meal in The Restaurant or something more Swiss and laid-back like a Raclette at the edge of this luxury hotel's very own ice rink.

And never let it be said the luxury extras are ignored here. Fancy a fabulous cigar bar? You got it. Walk-in cheese thermidor? Of course. Switzerland's most extensive sake bar? Well, you'd expect as much here. Safe to say your every whim is catered for at The Chedi Andermatt.

Eating

The Restaurant – A smart-casual affair open for breakfast, champagne brunch, lunch and dinner. Watch the chefs hard at work in four open-studio kitchens showcasing Asian and European dishes. The highlight of a meal at The Restaurant must be The Wine and Cheese Cellar, which stands 5 metres high and shows off some of the best of Switzerland’s specialities.

The Japanese Restaurant – Open for dinner Wednesday to Sunday and every day over the peak winter weeks, you’ll experience some of the best Japanese cuisine you’ll ever taste. Sit at the sushi and sashimi bars or the tempura and teppanyaki counter at this Michelin star restaurant and enjoy a mindful meal of fresh-as-can-be fish. The Japanese Restaurant also boasts the most extensive sake collection in Switzerland, which the sake sommelier will be pleased to introduce you to.

The Wine and Cigar Library – Fine wines, spirits and cigars around a roaring fire. Open 10am to midnight.

The Bar and Living Room – The destination for après ski in Andermatt. Enjoy light meals and snacks from 11am to midnight and from 3pm and 6pm don’t miss the bar’s renowned mulled wine and chestnuts on the terrace during the peak winter weeks.

The Lobby – Light meals and snacks and small ‘culinary treats’ from 10am until 10pm. The Lobby is a stylish bar and eatery where you can relax to the sound of the tinkling of a piano.

The Courtyard – Enjoy mulled wine, chestnuts and punch around the hotel’s very own ice rink during the winter months.

The Clubhouse – Open only in season, the 18-hole golf course on the other side of Andermatt has a club house serving Swiss and Italian specialities in Summer and in winter chese fondue, and fondue chinoise and bourguignonne. It’s a brisk and pleasant walk through Andermatt or the hotel’s limousine service will drop you there and back.

The Chalet – Open only during winter months for dinner, The Chalet is a rustic eatery based within the hotel’s Courtyard. Red-and-white checked cloths and Alpine beams make this as Swiss a place as you’ll find to indulge in Raclette and truffled fondue.

Kids

Younger visitors are made very welcome at The Chedi Andermatt. All the rooms and suites can accommodate at least two children and the larger suites have lots of space for little ones to play.

There is a children's menu in 'The Restaurant' and lots to keep them busy during their stay here when they aren't learning to ski. Kids of all ages are sure to love the indoor and outdoor pools and older ones will be thrilled to try out the courtyard ice rink in the winter months.

The Chedi Andermatt runs a fabulous kids' club where they can take part in cooking classes, ice rink activities, movie nights and much more. You can arrange for them to take their meals at the kids' club if they prefer that to sitting in a restaurant and babysitters can also be booked on request.

Location

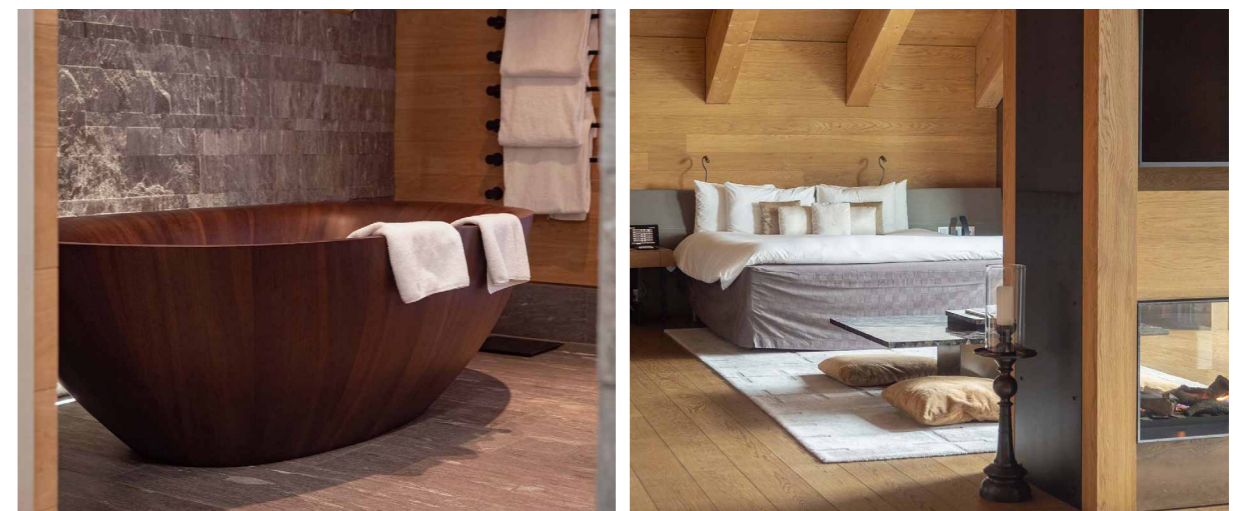

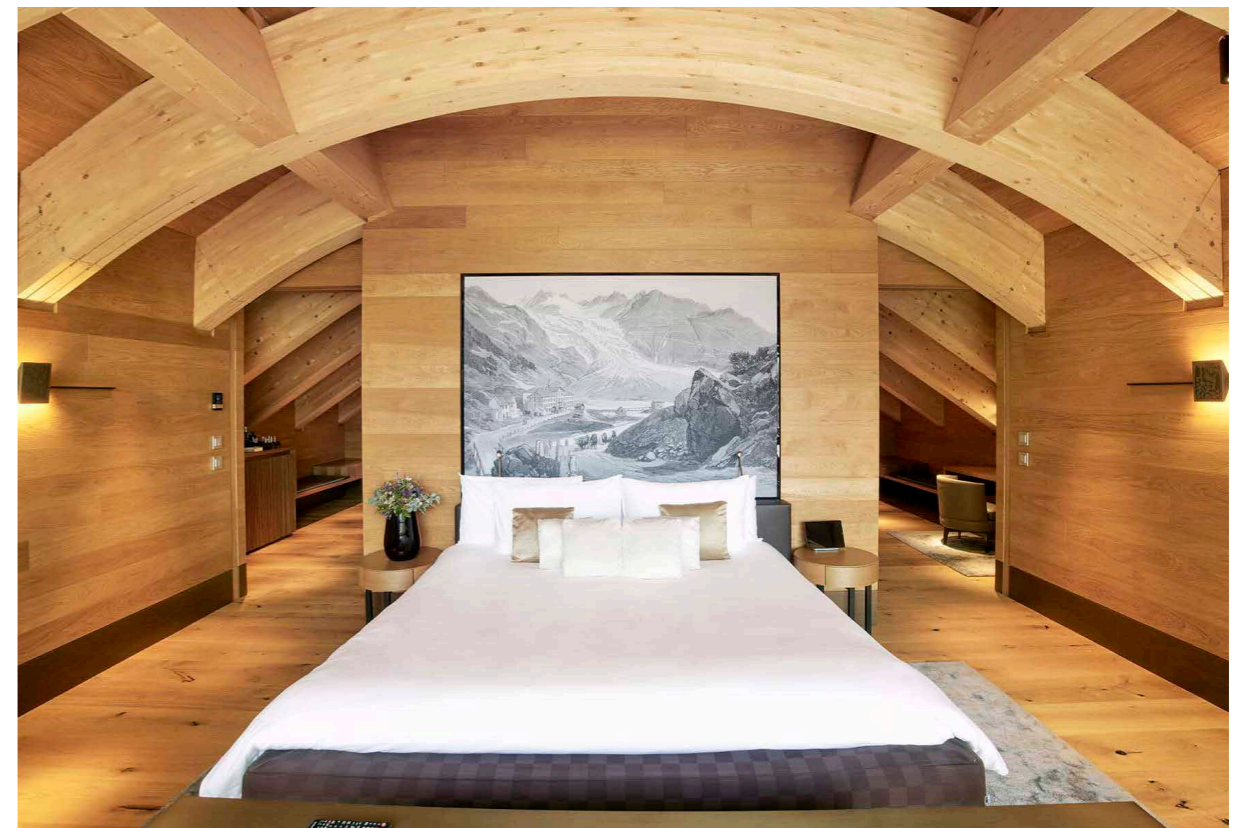

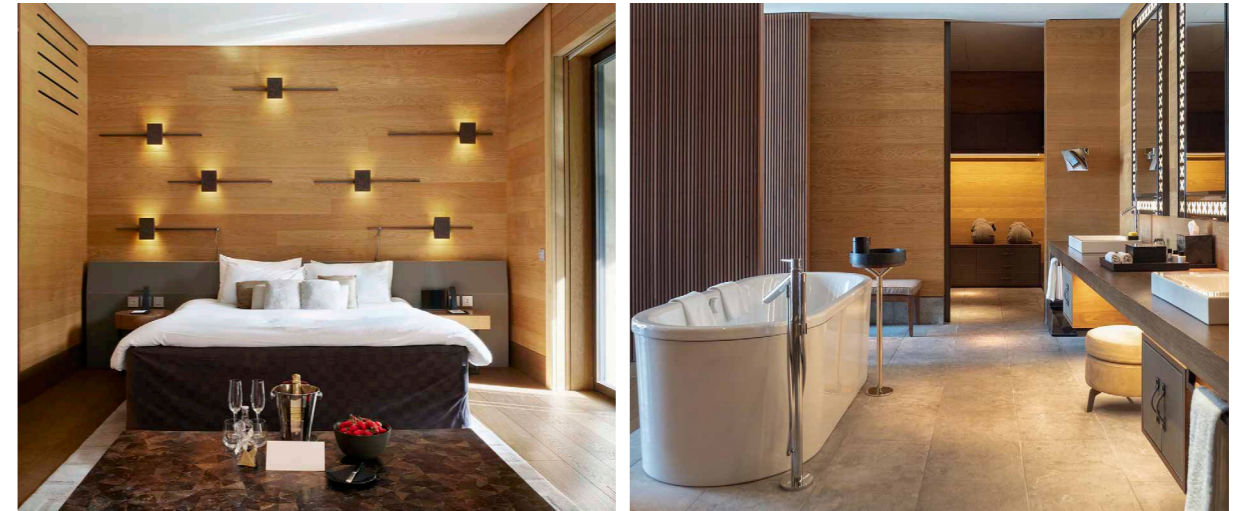

The Chedi Andermatt is located in the lovely Swiss town of Andermatt, which is encircled by stunning mountain scenery. The hotel is just a short walk away from the centre of town and all its bars and restaurants, though The Chedi Andermatt is also a bit of a destination in itself. The nearest ski lifts are within a 5-10 minute walk, though the hotel offers a shuttle service to transport you to and from the slopes in no time.

If you are arriving by train, complimentary transfers are included from Göschenen station, which is just a 10 minute drive away. Andermatt station is also conveniently located just across the street from this luxury ski hotel, and on arrival you'll be warmly greeted by a member of reception staff who will assist with your luggage.

Alternatively transfers or private chauffeured limousines can be arranged on request to and from Zurich, Milan, Lucerne and Buochs airports. The nearest airports are Zurich, 1hr 30mins away by car, and Milan 2hrs away.
