

Villa La Costa Ibiza, Spain

What we love...

We love the breathtaking views of the surrounding green hills and the turquoise Mediterranean sea...

Perched in the supremely salubrious neighbourhood of Cap Martinet with direct access to the sea, this eponymous villa is one of the classiest you'll find.

For those in need of a luxury retreat embellished with contemporary architecture, fine artwork and modish sculptures, the commitment to fashion is compelling. The brilliant white, elegant structure cascades down the hillside offering its residents views down to the shimmering Mediterranean Sea from each of three floors on offer.

No stone has been left unturned in the detail, design and decadence at Villa La Costa. The indoor living area is vast, open plan and chic. Adorned with artwork, sculptures and voguish accoutrements, the space is the epitome of class. In the dining area, a designer oak table will comfortably seat your guests and contrasts perfectly with the white leather chairs and awesome industrial chrome lamps above.

The open tread staircase leads up to the three of the luxurious en suite bedrooms. Sculpted designer headboards and classic chic furniture complements each of the spacious rooms whilst the terrace offers mesmerising views of the surrounding bushland and shimmering sea beyond. The other two bedrooms occupy the ground floor offering immediate access to the pool. What better way to start your day than an early morning dip in a luxury infinity swimming pool?

Outside, lavish loungers laid out on the terrace offer the ideal spot to soak up some Spanish sun; white cotton sofas perfectly positioned under the vast concrete canopy offer respite, peace and welcome shade; rattan patio furniture is in prime spot for supping on a little glass of bubbly and a choice of two dining areas for the all important al fresco dining when the sun begins to dip towards the glistening horizon.

No villa of this quality would be complete without a swimming pool and no expense has been spared in creating this one. Surrounded by pale timber dining tables under shaded pergolas, the infinity pool lies exactly where it ought; seemingly perched on the edge of the property suggesting its cool blue water trickles into the bushland beyond, there is simply nowhere better to cool off than in this decadent swimming pool.
