

Villa Margaux St. Tropez, France

What we love...

Villa Margaux's private bar, stocked with the region's best wines and spirits. Who needs the clubs of Saint Tropez when you can start your very own A-list party right here?

Situated on a private estate, a short drive from the iconic Pampelonne beach clubs and a short stroll from the port of Saint Tropez, this luxury villa with swimming pool and private chef delivers on every level. Offering views over the vineyards of Routes des Plages and the shimmering Med, Villa Margaux is located on prestigious Route Des Marres. It offers an ideal base from which to immerse yourselves in this glittering resort, loved by Hollywood royalty and actual royalty since the 1950s.

Sleeping 12 across six large en-suite bedrooms, there's ample space for larger parties to spread out. Futuristic design, modern art pieces and cool neutral decor enhance the easy breezy vibe.

Relax on linen covered sofas, champagne in hand, as you enjoy the sea air wafting through expansive sliding doors. At Villa Margaux, indoors blends seamlessly with outdoors. When it's time to venture outside, you'll find perfectly tended gardens and a gorgeous pool. If you can rouse yourself from your lounge at any point, you might explore the private gym and massage suite with steam room. Then again, you might just wander to the shaded pool house for another cocktail.

Each of the six large en-suite bedrooms boasts Apple TV and your privacy is assured thanks to electric security gates. You can also bring your fleet, with space for four cars along with an additional underground garage for another three vehicles.

When you're not exploring Saint Tropez, you can kick back in your private cinema, cocktail bar and wine cellar stocked with the region's finest award-winning wines and spirits.

Don't worry about lifting a finger either as this luxury villa's dedicated villa host and personal concierge will see to every request in a jiffy.

Eating

Start your Saint Tropez luxury villa holiday in style, with champagne and canapés on arrival at Villa Margaux. Your own personal Michelin trained chef will be on hand six days a week of your stay to ensure you never feel even the slightest hunger pangs.

Freshly cooked breakfasts kick off your mornings, whilst lazy lunches can be enjoyed around the al fresco dining table. There's also a barbeque if the mood takes you. Six evenings out of seven, you'll enjoy four course gourmet dinners prepared by Chef. You'll also be treated to specially selected wines. And don't worry about your glass running dry at Villa Margaux - there's a private bar and wine cellar.

On the chef's well deserved day off, you're free to explore the many culinary delights of Saint Tropez. The beach restaurants of La Pampelonne are nearby and come highly recommended, as does Résidence de la Pinède at Plage de la Bouillabaisse, which has a stunning terrace overlooking the beach.
