

Villa le Rêve St. Tropez, France

What we love...

We love the heated pool with pool house, meaning you can spend all day lounging at the water's edge.

Le Rêve is a luxury villa in St Tropez and 'dreamy' is certainly the word. This stunning property is a work of art in itself. Cool, contemporary but with a hint of rustic charm that makes it super welcoming, this is a villa you feel instantly at home in and won't want to leave.

Sleeping a total of 18 guests (plus 4 guests' staff or children), Villa le Rêve offers a huge space in which to get together for a big celebration or just a flexible house that's ideal for several families to share, enjoying each other's company as well as plenty of space and privacy of their own.

Each of the stylish bedrooms is decked out in cool cottons, rustic art pieces and with state-of-the-art TVs and spa-style bathrooms to work like a mini hotel. As a place to collapse at the end of a packed day or a bolthole to retreat to for a quiet evening, the bedrooms are all a sight for sore eyes.

A spacious dining area indoors is an ideal backdrop for meals whipped up by your Michelin chef. On warmer nights, meals can be served out in the alfresco dining room, in the covered loggia brought to life by twinkling lights as the sun goes down.

Indoors, a cinema room and games room create space for every member of your party to be entertained. Chill-out areas around the villa allow everyone space to relax with a drink in the evenings on capacious sofas and in armchairs in cosy corners all around the house and grounds. Whether your intention is to curl up with a book or party with all your pals Villa le Rêve provides the perfect spot.

The heart of this property though, is the heated outdoor pool. Surrounded by comfortable seating and outdoor beds, and with a pool house with kitchen nearby, the pool area is somewhere you can relax all day, dipping in and out of the water, enjoying the sunshine and relaxing in the shade.

With a chef, housekeeper, villa host and concierge service all on hand throughout your holiday, every drink should remain topped up, every pillow plumped and every one of your whims fulfilled. They don't call it dreamland for nothing.

Eating

Excellent food and drink are a key part of your stay at Villa le Rêve. Your private Michelin chef will be on hand on six days to ensure all your needs are catered for and will be in touch prior to your stay to design bespoke menus to suit your party's preferences.

As you arrive, champagne and canapés are served to start your holiday on the right note. In the mornings the aroma of a delicious cooked breakfast will rouse you from the comfort of your beds and at lunchtimes, laid-back alfresco meals are prepared so you can make the most of the villa's lovely outdoor spaces.

In the evenings, a four-course gastronomic feast is served alongside local cheeses and carefully selected wines. Meals here go on long into the evening and are a sociable affair, the highlight of the holiday for many guests.

The villa comes with a fully stocked drinks and nibbles fridge so that at any time of day you're feeling peckish you can help yourself, and don't forget to pop down to your private wine cave to pick out something special for dinner each day, too.

Villa le Rêve

Kids

Younger guests are made very welcome at this luxury villa and there's so much here to keep them busy.

As well as the beach, just a short walk away, there's the wild parklands surrounding the villa to explore and, closer to home, the 20x7m heated swimming pool to splash in. They'll never be short of fresh air here, whether they're haring about the parklands, or ensconced in a game of boules or table tennis.

If they need a break from the sunshine, or on a chillier evening, there's plenty of fun on tap inside the villa too. The games room is equipped with a pool table and lots more, and there's even a cinema room where they can collapse in front of a film while the grown-ups have drinks and canapés.
