

White Chalet

Courchevel 1300, France

What we love...

The indoor heated infinity pool decorated with fairy light strung birches and quirky penguin art. It's a truly magical spot to relax in after a day on the slopes.

The traditional grey stone and white wood framing of this luxury ski chalet exude quintessential Alpine charm. Located in a quiet pedestrian street in the village of Le Praz, you can't find a more convenient location.

But step inside White Chalet and there's no doubt you've uncovered a top notch mountain hideaway. You'll find exposed beams, natural slate, neutral linens and luxe furnishings adorned liberally with fur throws. Quirky designer touches adds a contemporary vibe. Look out for the pair of golden rabbits, no less, presiding over the cosy lounge area. Grab a glass of something bubbly and join them beside the impressive double-sided fire place.

Floor to ceiling windows in the bedrooms and living space bring all that famous mountain light flooding in. The sunny terrace is an ideal luncheon spot, as you drink in the mountain views and fir trees. Climb the stairs of this luxury ski chalet and you'll find a string of lotus flowers guiding your way to your luxury bedroom.

You're perfectly placed at White Chalet for the ski lifts which will whisk you across the expansive 3 Vallees ski area. You're also close to the many dining and shopping opportunities on offer in this traditional village. No need to worry about transportation home after dinner.

Whether you're navigating designer boutiques or black runs, you'll find solace in this luxury ski's private wellness area. An inviting heated pool and massage room are at your disposal. Later, enjoy an aperitif in the cinema room.

If you opt to stay home rather than venture into the snow after nightfall, the atmospheric dining space, complete with pearl chandelier, was designed with dinner en famille in mind.
