

Chalet Nidaya

Les Houches (Chamonix), France

What we love...

We love the sunken Jacuzzi out on the terrace, overlooking the ski lifts.

The perfect meeting of traditional and modern, Chalet Nidaya is a beautiful wood chalet in typical style but with a thoroughly modern outlook.

At the heart of this luxury chalet is the light and airy but supremely cosy living and dining area, with blazing wood fire, an intimate dining area, and doors that lead out to the garden and the sunken hot tub on the terrace. It's a fabulous entertaining space, ideal for a party for a special occasion or simply sprawling together on the capacious sofas at the end of an energetic skiing day. The kitchen and bar are open-plan to the area, making this a really sociable space.

For afternoons when you're back from the slopes and want to chill out before the evening gets underway, head straight to the relaxation area with its sauna, guaranteed to warm you through to your bones, or sit out in the Jacuzzi with pre dinner drinks and feel any aches and pains from the slopes melt away. Or get together in the cinema room and snuggle up in front of a good movie.

As well as having lots of places to gather with those close to you, this luxury ski chalet also has plenty of space to find a little peace on your own, from the master suite with its own log fire to sit and stare into, and access to the terrace, to the en-suite bedrooms on the upper floor, each with wonderful Mont Blanc views.

Staff are always on hand to ensure your every whim is met, every pillow plumped and every drink topped up. Your only task is to sit back and enjoy it all.

Eating

Your private chef and host are on hand during your stay to keep you well fed and watered, beginning in style with champagne and canapés as you arrive.

Each morning you'll wake to the aroma of a delicious breakfast and lighter options are available, too. Whatever you choose, you'll be well set up for a day's skiing.

When you return from the slopes, afternoon tea is ready and waiting with hot drinks and homemade treats to warm you through.

On six evenings, your chef will put together a sumptuous four-course dinner for you. Menu options can be discussed before your stay to ensure it's all exactly to your liking. On your chef's day off the staff will be happy to assist with restaurant bookings.

If you're travelling with younger guests, a children's tea can be served on six evenings, to allow little ones to enjoy a more child-friendly menu and get to bed a bit earlier.

Please note that if you prefer, this property can be booked on a self-catered basis.

Kids

You can be sure younger visitors will receive a warm welcome at this family-friendly ski chalet in Chamonix.

In the afternoons after ski school, children will enjoy splashing in the outdoor hot tub and later on, they can relax in the TV room for a movie night.

A dedicated children's menu means little ones can eat a tea they'll enjoy early in the evening, leaving parents free to relax over a more leisurely meal post-bedtime.

Two of the bedrooms can be configured as twins and there is also a bunk room, ideal for children to share.

Nannies and babysitters can be booked on request.
