

Chalet Artemisia

Courchevel 1650, France

What we love...

We love the quiet, and slightly wild, location of this luxury ski chalet. It feels like a real retreat from the world.

Hidden out in the snow between the mountains and Belvedere Forest is a delightful property that's just perfect for groups of friends or families.

Chalet Artemisia is a luxury ski chalet with a modern rustic style that offers a thoroughly warm welcome and feels like a home from home, as soon as you walk through the door. A palette of neutrals, warm woods and light-filled, spacious rooms create an inviting feel. Capacious sofas provide enough room for everyone to sprawl in comfort by the roaring fire, and a contemporary dining room makes for a very pleasant space in which to linger over good foods and fine wines long into the evening.

The location is second to none, with ski-in/ski-out access and all of the 3 Valleys at your disposal. Perched just out of the town, there's also ample opportunity for other outdoor activities such as sledging or snowshoe hiking.

And whenever you get back to your luxury ski chalet, you'll be warmed through in no time. Perhaps with a sauna or Hammam, a relaxing massage in the treatment room or by simply cosying up in the separate TV room with popcorn and hot chocolate. There's even a quiet study if you find you just want a little space to retreat to for a book for a couple of hours.

In the evenings, we heartily recommend you wander out onto the terrace for digestifs and to enjoy the night air and the slopes views. When you retreat to your bedrooms at the end of the night, it's to comfy and cosy boltholes, kitted out with rolltop baths, corners for sitting and reading in, the squashest of pillows and the softest of duvets; a little bit of boutique hotel in your own private chalet.

Chalet Artemisia

Kids

This luxury family-friendly ski chalet was designed with groups of adults and kids in mind.

There's plenty of space for play and for everyone to be together, too, with sprawling sofas for family time after a day's skiing. Kids are sure to enjoy the separate TV room; the ideal spot for them to chill out after ski school in front of a movie.

A well equipped ski room makes taking them out on the slopes a much easier job. You can ski straight out of the door and when you're ready to come home, all their gear can be quickly ditched in the ski room and be nice and warm and dry the following day.
