

Grand Alpine Home Lech, Austria

What we love...

We love the party room with its darts board, football table, private cinema, pinball machines and bar; the perfect den for party people.

Sophisticated, smart, but with a wicked sense of fun, this luxury ski chalet in Lech could be your perfect match.

The two-bedroomed apartment suite is ideal for a family of four, or two couples, with its luxury en-suite bedrooms and terraces to provide a quiet spot for breakfast or a late evening tittle.

The living and dining space has been thoughtfully designed to create a soothing atmosphere, with a palette of dark neutrals, rich woods and rough-hewn stone. A mix of vintage and designer furniture gives an eclectic and comfortable feel.

The heart of the property must be the huge, statement stone fireplace in the living area, with a large L-shaped sofa in front of it, waiting for you to sprawl on with a drink in hand in the evenings, while you watch the lights twinkle on in the village through the floor-to-ceiling windows. There's also a cosy dining space on this floor where you can enjoy a quick breakfast before you head out onto the snow, or a leisurely meal in the evenings, on nights when you prefer to eat in the privacy of your chalet.

As well as having fabulous access to the slopes and the village, there's plenty to do in the Grand Alpine Home, too, with a party room, complete with pinball machines, table football, darts, a private bar and more. You also have your own private spa and massage area, where you can rest body and soul after a day on the slopes, as well as enjoying access to the adjacent Aurelio hotel's own spa and pool.

The Grand Alpine Home can also be hired alongside Arla's Modern and Vintage suites to sleep a total of 10 people, making it a fabulous party space for a larger group, but for four it's just the perfect bolthole in the snow, with something to keep everyone entertained and laid-back atmosphere that makes it impossible not to kick back and relax.

Eating

Grand Alpine Home is offered on a bed & breakfast basis, allowing you to follow your own schedule. You'll start each day with an appetising and hearty breakfast, an ideal way to set you up for a day on the slopes.

If you wish, you can also dine in at Aurelio Club hotel's restaurant, where you can opt for fine dining or a half-board menu.

There's plenty to do in Lech and the town is most known for its gastronomy, so foodies will be in seventh heaven here. This property is walking distance from many wonderful restaurants, too. We particularly recommend Zur Kanne's for lunch on its terraces, Griggeler Stuba for an evening meal of local, seasonal dishes.

Grand Alpine Home

Kids

Children will receive a warm welcome at the Grand Alpine Home.

Tweens and teens are sure to love the amazing party space with darts board, table football, a pinball machine, plus a multimedia system and private cinema; all ideal for a party or just as a space for them to chill out while the adults catch up over drinks in the early evening.

Teens might enjoy relaxing in the private spa area, with sauna, steam room and Zen-like relaxation space. There's also a swimming pool in the adjacent Aurelio hotel, which guests of Arla are welcome to use.

The property's team of staff are on hand to help you with organising and booking kids' activities, both on and off the slopes, and nannies and babysitters can be arranged on request.

Location

This luxury ski chalet is located in the Tannberg region of Lech and is just a short walk to the centre of the village where you can explore the bars, restaurants and shops.

The blue Schlegelkopf piste is conveniently located across the road, offering almost ski-in/ ski-out access. From here, it is a short ski down to the nearest Schlegelkopfbahn lift station.

The nearest airports are Innsbruck, approx. 1hr 30mins away or Zurich approx. 2hrs 30mins away.
