

Arla Luxury Home Lech, Austria

What we love...

We love the entertainment facilities at this luxury ski chalet, with two spa areas and fully equipped party room with cinema and games room.

If your style is quiet sophistication, but you like to let your hair down once in a while, this luxury ski chalet in Lech might be your perfect match.

Ideal for groups of up to 10, and particularly for several families sharing who may want to enjoy their own space occasionally, Arla Luxury Home is a three-storey building that can also be rented as three separate apartment suits, so it offers five bedrooms and three separate living and dining spaces, as well as well-equipped ski rooms and some super-cool spaces for fun and parties. Room for everyone both to gather together and find a little space apart.

The property has been thoughtfully designed in rustic woods and stone and a neutral, dark palette for a boutique hotel feel. The largest of the living spaces has a statement stone fireplace, vaulted ceilings and floor-to-ceiling windows that slide right back to give access to the property's balconies. It's a wonderful space for you all to get together in the evenings for a few drinks, and there are still two more smaller living spaces where the kids can escape to watch a film together or you can disappear to with a book or a snooze.

For quiet afternoons following a morning on the slopes, the spa facilities are second to none, with sauna, steam room, yoga and fitness studio as well as a spacious relaxation area where you can just sit and 'be' following your treatments.

But the jewel in this property's crown must be its games and party room. In here is a private bar, darts board, football table and pinball machines. There's also a multimedia room and a private cinema all at your disposal. So whether you want to throw a private screening for your friends, enjoy a laid-back gathering or throw the party to end all parties, it's all here for you.

At the end of the day, you'll retire to wonderful bedrooms that are all unique in their own way. Each has something that makes it special - it might be a freestanding bathtub, a piece of vintage furniture or a cosy private living space, and each has a luxury bathroom and its own terrace entrance so you can bid the mountains goodnight with a nightcap or greet the sun with a cup of steaming coffee first thing in the morning.

Let the mountain adventures begin!

If you prefer, you can also opt for a fine dining menu or half board at Aurelio's, the gourmet restaurant in the adjoining hotel, either in the restaurant itself or in your chalet. Alternatively, a private chef can be arranged to keep you well fed and watered at all times, whether you want simple comfort food on the sofa, gourmet private dining or local specialities such as fondue and raclette. The team can also arrange wine tastings, cookery classes and events for you, if you're celebrating a special occasion during your stay.

There's lots to do in Lech in all seasons and it's particularly known for its gastronomy. This property is walking distance from many fabulous eateries. We particularly like having lunch on Zur Kanne's terraces, and for an evening meal you won't forget, Griggeler Stuba always serves wonderful, seasonal dishes made from local ingredients.
