

Chalet Infusion Meribel Village, France

What we love...

We love the huge, wraparound terraces where you can relax in the hot tub, enjoy a drink from the bar and sit under outdoor heaters on the sun loungers, taking in the magnificent view.

Tucked away in the charming satellite hamlet of Meribel Village, Chalet Infusion offers a luxury ski holiday in the 3 Valleys with everything you could need on hand.

Newly renovated for 2021/22 season, Chalet Infusion has been carefully designed using warm, rustic woods and rough-hewn stone, with a very modern twist. It makes a great base for a group of family or friends to explore Meribel together, with acres of amazing skiing on your doorstep and ski routes to allow you to ski right up to the back door. A well-equipped boot room with driers and a laundry room for all your ski gear mean your equipment is always ready to go when you want it and you never waste a moment when you could be out on the slopes.

Inside the chalet, huge windows allow you to enjoy the mountains from the comfort of the sofa, too, with panoramic views of the Olympe Chairlift and the famous women's downhill run from the 1982 Olympics. The living spaces have a statement fireplace, where you'll enjoy Champagne and canapés in the evening, while your chef prepares your meal, and nearby is a cosy and chic dining space for you to gather round to enjoy local dishes made from seasonal ingredients.

French doors open out onto wraparound terraces, which allow you to always find a sunny spot for your sun lounger. And in the evenings, turn on the outdoor heating, grab a drink from the bar and then relax in the outdoor hot tub or cosy up under a blanket for some stargazing.

For quiet, snowy afternoons, when you're back from skiing and ready to warm up and rest weary legs, there's a private sauna and beauty treatment area for those who fancy a little pampering, as well as a private cinema room for movie matinees, and games galore from ping pong to billiards. There's room for everyone to find their own niche here and enjoy a little peace and quiet when they wish, as well as plenty of open-plan spaces to gather together with good friends and close family to make memories in this very special corner of the 3 Valleys.

Eating

Chalet Infusion's private chef is on hand to ensure you are well fed and watered during your luxury ski holiday.

An a la carte breakfast is served each morning to set you up for a day on the slopes and then when you return from the snow, afternoon tea with mulled wine is ready and waiting to warm you through.

On five nights of the week, you'll enjoy canapés and Champagne by the fire while your chef prepares a gourmet four-course evening meal, accompanied by fine wines. Your chef will also be happy to create a special children's menu for little ones to enjoy earlier in the evening if you are travelling with kids.

The chalet's staff will be happy to assist with booking restaurant tables, on your chef's days off; we particularly like La Terrasse, close by in Meribel Village, as well as the Le Savoy bistro in the centre of town.

Kids

Children are well looked after and most welcome at Chalet Infusion. Nothing is too much trouble for the staff, who understand that the key to parents enjoying a relaxing holiday is making sure their kids are well catered for.

On the bottom floor of the chalet there's a quad bunk room, so there's plenty of space for kids of all ages to bunk down, and lots of room to play, too. The master bedroom offers an adjoining cabin bunk room, creating a wonderful family suite for little ones who wish to be close to their parents.

There's also lots to keep them busy in the main areas of Chalet Infusion, including table tennis, billiards, darts and a cinema with top-of-the-range entertainment system.

Nannies and babysitters are available to be arranged on request.
