

Chalet Blackcomb Val d'Isere

What we love...

We love the south-facing outdoor hot tub on the terrace that overlooks the snowy ridgeline...

Chalet Blackcomb is a newly and beautifully renovated catered chalet for up to ten guests, located in the picturesque snow-sure high-altitude ski resort of Val d'Isère.

Inside the property, bedecked in natural wood and gorgeous textiles, this phenomenal alpine chalet features an open plan kitchen and snug area. Past the glass partition, enter the most welcoming dining area and lounge, centred around the crackle of an open fireplace. Truly a tremendous space to warm your toes in front of the crackle of the fire whilst you sip on your complimentary Perrier-Jouët Champagne.

Overlooking the beautiful views of the mountain valley and smelling the delicious aroma of your evening meal being cooked for you wafting out from the kitchen is a real treat. Just as your mouth is starting to water, you'll be offered pre-dinner nibbles and a topped-up drink from the well-stocked open chalet bar. Chalet Blackcomb thinks about the little touches. After dinner saunter out to the hot tub, in soft, delicious dressing gowns and hotel quality slippers.

Each bedroom maintains an element of needed privacy, each with their own en-suites. Two of the bedrooms even have direct access to the chalet's private south-facing balcony that will lead the lucky habitants to the outdoor hot tub. There's nothing more relaxing than clinking a glass in your own private mountain hot tub, whilst watching your breath rise in the cold winter air outside. Well, maybe taking a dip in the rather spectacular indoor pool or having an in-chalet massage after a hard day on the slopes may rival it – but we'll leave that up to you...

Eating

Chalet Blackcomb is the perfect option for guests looking for a relaxed catered experience, offering comfort family meals.

Your day will begin gently with tea and coffee served as you like whilst your chalet hosts are preparing your breakfast to sort you out before a day on the piste. Come back in to hot drinks and afternoon tea laid out ready for your arrival.

We know that skiing is hungry work, so pre-dinner nibbles will be laid out for you to savour. Five nights a week, the chalet staff will prepare two delicious dinner courses, plus a cheese course. We are in France after all.

Dinner is always served with a selection of chateau bottled house wines. If you're after something a little more special, have a browse through the à la carte list of vintage wines and champagnes. An open bar is also stocked with spirits and soft drinks. And, of course, Perrier-Jouët Champagne is on tap whenever you fancy.

With two evenings of the week to sample the local restaurants, the in-resort concierge team will be happy to provide you with personal recommendations for top-tier dining locally.
