

Chalet La Chouette Meribel

What we love...

We love the sunken hot tub on the south-facing sun terrace.

Chalet La Chouette embodies total serenity. Despite being just minutes from the vibrant town of Meribel centre, the chalet feels utterly secluded and private. Upon arrival, the front although grand, seems unassuming to the untrained eye. That's because the entire property has been crafted into the hillside below revealing four floors of pure opulence inside. You'll enter into the spacious lounge where cosy designer sofas around the open fireplace create that addictive 'can't get up' feeling.

The entire back of the chalet boasts a spectacular view down into the Meribel valley. With panoramic vistas of both the Tougnette and Cherferie ski slopes, the sprawling wrap around balcony is the ultimate spot for catching up with friends. The beautiful sun terrace seating area on the lower floor takes full advantage of the chalet's south-facing space. Succumb to relaxation, and enjoy a glass of champagne whilst you linger over the last few pages in your book in the sunken hot tub. Here is a place to feel entirely immersed by your surroundings, and to just be.

Chalet La Chouette is built for large groups, with 7 bedrooms it sleeps up to 14 guests comfortably. With a trained and experienced team on hand, they add that extra sprinkle of indulgence that takes your stay from amazing, to exceptional. The pre-departure and in-resort concierge team have it all covered. Whether it's ski hire, lift passes, child care, airport transfers or fitting services, they'll sort it quickly and efficiently with a smile on their face.

Relaxation is taken seriously at Chalet La Chouette. If you've had enough of the outdoor hot tub for one day, why don't you take some time away in the indoor sauna or ask the concierge team to organise an in-chalet massage for you. Post spa relaxation, take your favourite tittle down to the private cinema room and continue the zen. The housekeeping and evening turndown service five days a week means you'll be slipping into freshly made beds after a long, exciting day of making memories.

Eating

Start your day with wake-up drinks brought to your bedside as the sun starts to creep round the chalet. We're sure that the smells of cooked breakfast will get you moving, especially those with a big morning appetite. If you just want something small, a selection of continental breakfast options is also presented. On return from the slopes, freshly baked afternoon tea will be waiting for you... bliss.

The chef creates an entirely tailored fine-dining menu to your tastes five nights a week. Savour the pre-dinner canapés and aperitif in front of the open fire whilst the chef cooks up a three-course storm. Your in-chalet host will make sure your drink is never empty, informing you about the wine pairings that have been carefully selected to compliment your dining experience. Additionally, there's a final course of hand-picked local cheese and port to enjoy.

As well as the large selection of complimentary bar drinks, from pre-dinner champagne to premium spirits, cocktails and house wines, there is also a large selection of fine wines available for purchase from the cellar.

Kids

La Chouette makes a good base for a family ski holiday, particularly with teens and older children who can entertain themselves but want to make the most of this great ski location. There's plenty of space over the four floors for kids to play and for adults to have tranquil space too.

The deck is the perfect play area for the little ones, particularly as the adults can keep watch from the hot tub. We're sure the kids will want to have a splash around in the sunken tub too! After a long day on the slopes, youngsters may well be worn out straight after dinner, but if not, the private cinema room is the perfect spot for a night time snuggle and film.

The concierge team will help you arrange for childcare should you wish to enjoy an adults-only evening out.
