

Chalet La Connivence

Megeve, France

What we love...

We love the outdoor spa area, with barrel sauna and wooden hot tub, linked by boardwalks. The spa has mountain views in the daytime and the whole area is illuminated by twinkling candles at night time.

Traditional mountain style meets hi-tech mod cons in this luxury ski chalet in Megeve. Chalet La Connivence has a modern-rustic feel that allows you to relax the moment you walk in the front door. Natural materials, from rich woods and rough slate tiles to leather and faux fur soft furnishings bring Savoyard charm to the spacious property.

The shared living spaces are designed with sociable, laid-back gatherings in mind. At the heart is a sunken living area with a huge wood burning fireplace as its centrepiece. Lounge here with friends in the afternoons when you return from your ski, refuelling with hot drinks and hearing everyone's tales from the slopes. A television is hidden away cleverly in a sideboard and rises up to give you a private cinema experience using the integrated Bose sound system.

Adjacent is a cosy dining area to seat 10 where you and your party will enjoy meals in comfort. There's also a breakfast nook for quick coffees and a bite to eat before you head out in the mornings, located just off the well-equipped kitchen.

Chalet La Connivence enjoys wonderful views of the mountainside, dotted with pretty chalets, so the balcony is set up with a small table and chairs to allow you to relax with a morning coffee and just take in the scenery and the Alpine air before the day properly begins.

In the afternoons, head down the steps to the outdoor spa area, which sits in landscaped gardens and lawns and includes a hot tub and barrel sauna linked by wooden boardwalks, beautifully lit by candles. The mountain view from the glass wall of the sauna is, without a doubt, one of the highlights of a stay at this luxury ski chalet.

After a day full of snowy adventures, pampering and fun, you'll be more than ready for your bed by late evening. Each of the double rooms opens onto the wraparound balcony so you can enjoy a nightcap under the stars before you retire to super-comfy bed, puffy pillows and luxury sheets and throws to get cosy under. You're sure to enjoy sweet dreams here.

Kids

Younger visitors are made most welcome at Chalet La Connivence. There's a spacious quad bunk room designed for kids to make their own den and find space away from the grown-ups to relax.

Kids of all ages will be impressed by the magic TV which is hidden away within a sideboard and raises up for movie nights! And each of the double rooms has its own flatscreen TV too, so there's no arguing about who watches what.

Older teens will enjoy the fabulous outdoor spa and the addition of a ski room makes getting out on the slopes (and back in again) a breeze for families.

Location

This luxury ski chalet in Megeve is set in one of the town's most exclusive areas. It's quiet and peaceful, but still just 10 minutes walk from both the centre of Megeve and the Chamois ski lift so you're never far from the action, whether that's being first on the powder in the morning, or bagging the best seat for people-watching in one of Megeve's bars.

The nearest airport is Geneva, approximately an hour's drive away.
