

Chalet Raven

Tignes les Brévières, France

What we love...

We love the chic, artistic flair of the décor at Chalet Raven. It has a quirky urban feel, and it truly stands out.

If Chalet Raven was to be described in two words, it would be eccentrically exceptional. Chalet Raven is the heart of the Black Diamond Complex in Tignes les Brevieres, and its name derives from the rare Raven Diamond. It's a space dedicated to celebrating contemporary art, street style graphics and bold uses of materials and colour. Using traditional alpine wood as the backdrop, the available wall space is covered in bright and colourful dream-like scenes that transport you to another world.

Sleeping up to 18 guests, Raven is home to seven utterly unique double-bedrooms with en-suites, and one bunk room that sleeps four children. Each bedroom has its own personality – one room is cheeky, boasting actual barred windows and exposed brickwork behind the bed frame. Others are confident, decked in bright mural inspired wall paintings, and some are shy with muted tones and delicate furnishings with one off splashes of colour. Behind each door is a surprise for the senses.

You'll never have to lift a finger at Chalet Raven. With a private concierge service organising your daily cleaning and tidying service, in-resort ski shuttle, ski lessons, ski valet, ski passes and in-chalet fitting if necessary – this is hands-free holiday making. With step free access and a private ski-locker, getting comfortable after skiing has never been easier. A day out shredding can be tiring on the legs and body, why not take 30 minutes to yourself in Raven's private yoga studio realigning your mind and preparing your muscles for the next day. Finish off your pre-dinner relax with a sizzling sauna just steps from the yoga studio. For the ultimate experience, massage and beauty treatments can also be arranged upon request.

Breakfast, afternoon tea and dinner provided with the fully catered package is a gastronomy experience to remember. Enjoy daily après ski drinks in your luxurious private bar complete with its very own Jacuzzi and then relax your muscles in the complex's shared spa area with a sauna, steam room and indoor swimming pool. End the day watching the sun dip below the horizon from the comfort of your private hot tub nestled on the terrace. Afterwards, you can wrap up in a warm blanket with a glass of champagne and take in the crisp mountain air outside. To stay here, is to feel re-invigorated both mentally and physically.

Eating

Chalet Raven's dining service is absolutely exceptional. The catered service means you'll arrive to the pop of champagne and a crisp glass waiting for you. The huge, speakeasy style private bar is at your complete disposal – with wines, beers, soft drinks, Gin, Vodka, Whisky and G n pi on tap. Your private butler will serve you breakfast of a delicious array of locally sourced produce and a 'just right' sugary afternoon tea snack. Six evenings of your stay you can truly relax into luxury, as your dinners are taken care of.

If you prefer to explore the local gastronomy throughout the duration of your holiday, Chalet Raven also offers a bed and breakfast continental catering option.

Kids

Bringing children to Chalet Raven is to see pure magic through their eyes. They'll feel like superstars from the minute they walk through the front door. They'll be greeted with a VIP welcome, hot chocolate and fresh fruit juice, giving them a little slice of what's to come.

Just when they think it can't get much better, watch their faces light up when they stumble across the kids' corner just to play and packed to the brim with puzzles, board games and video games. If you've exhausted the play area and desperate for an adult night out, the team can even help organise childcare. With unspent energy, why not enjoy splashing around in the shared swimming pool or playing in the warm private outdoor hot tub.
