

Chalet Grand Coeur Verbier

What we love...

We love the ultra-private heated outdoor pool for magical dips surrounded by snow-dusted forest.

This brand-new luxury ski chalet in Verbier brims with high-end style and classic alpine cosiness in equal measure. And with its exclusive location – just a stone’s throw from the Savoleyres lift station – you’ll be whisked from the mountains to your private heated outdoor swimming pool in minutes.

The main living space at Chalet Grand Coeur is up on the top floor to make the most of the mountain views. The homely open-plan lounge-kitchen-diner, with its exposed timber and double-height vaulted ceiling, follows a classic alpine décor, yet everything here is fresh and luxe, from the pendant lighting and plush sink-into sofas to the sleek kitchen that’s fully equipped with all mod cons. A rustic stone fireplace finishes off the room, where roaring fires will tempt you in from the sun-drenched valley-view terrace. Climb up to the mezzanine and you’ll find a secret reading nook.

The chalet’s pièce de résistance is its private outdoor swimming pool. Secluded under partial cover and surrounded by trees, a dip here is soothing and serene – and particularly magical when snow is falling all around.

In the four restful bedrooms, fluffy robes and snuggly throws complete the warm, cosy feel. The three doubles come with their own en-suite, while the snug twin room shares the guest bathroom. Those keen to maximise pool time can bag the bedroom that opens onto the pool terrace.

Eating

Chalet Grand Coeur offers a catered service with bells on. Start the day with a cooked and continental breakfast whipped up by your chef – enjoy the likes of eggs any way or syrupy pancakes washed down with cups of hot coffee to fuel you up for fun mornings on the mountains.

When you return to the chalet, you'll walk into the welcoming smell of freshly baked afternoon tea. Sink into a comfy sofa by the fire and make your way through the sweet and savoury treats.

After time to relax and refresh, begin the evening in style with canapés and Champagne, before tucking into a delicious four-course dinner. A handpicked selection of house wines will wash down your dishes nicely, with beers, soft drinks and a drinks tray of three house spirits included during your stay.

Afternoon tea and dinner are served six days a week, so there's also the chance for you to experience Verbier's thriving restaurant scene – just ask your concierge for recommendations and reservations.

For full flexibility, Chalet Grand Coeur can also be taken on a B&B or self-catered basis if you prefer.

Kids

Both the chalet and Verbier itself are excellent for families. Verbier has plenty of beginner slopes, and kids (as well as big kids) will love the toboggan run in Savoleyres. Then there's your chalet's private pool, which is sure to delight all ages.

Your private chef can also arrange early dinners, so younger guests can enjoy meals tailored to their tastes and at a time better suited to them.

Cots and high chairs are available for use, and childcare can be arranged on request.

Location

Chalet Grand Coeur is perched at an elevated position near Savoleyres and Carrefour, with beautiful valley views and the resort below.

It's a short drive to the Savoleyres lift station and the main Medran lift station and Place Centrale are approximately 5 minutes drive away.

Geneva airport is approximately 2 hours away.
