La Daille (Val d'Isere)

What we love...

We love the mix of contemporary and traditional design accentuated by the fantastic views from every window.

Le Penthouse Flèche is a well-decorated four-bedroom apartment that sleeps up to eight guests comfortably. Each bedroom boasts an en-suite, making it ideal for groups who love being together in a shared social setting, but want the privacy of having their own space. It really is a breath of fresh air, with interesting art work and modern contemporary furnishings bringing to life traditional alpine home design. Cocooned in the mountains and located at the foot of the slopes, this fourth-floor apartment has one of the best views in the resort. Your private concierge will organise all the details of your ski hire, and a friendly face will be there to welcome you when you first arrive.

After a long day exploring the Espace Killy ski area, come home, warm your boots up in the ski locker and cuddle up in front of the fireplace. The plush velvet seats around the grand wooden table make for a comfortable dining experience. Here you can bring Savoyard tradition to life with an at-home raclette or fondue – if you're not sure how to make them, your chalet team will be more than willing to impart their wisdom.

In the afternoons, relax on one of the comfortable sun loungers on the terrace with a glass of bubbly. Remember... Just because there's snow, doesn't mean it's not warm in the sun! When the snow falls outside, if you listen carefully, you may just hear the crackle of the fire calling you to come and relax inside. With all firewood included all you have to do is put your feet up – and maybe indulge in a nap.

Every room at Le Penthouse Flèche is delightful. The master bedroom overlooks the slopes and the other three bedrooms offer fantastic mountain views. With close proximity to the slopes and facing the ski-front village, this is an ideal spot for groups or families who want a reasonable yet luxury holiday.

Eating

The open planned dining, kitchen and living area is perfect for sociable groups who like to chitter chatter over their morning coffee together at the table. The breakfast bar overlooks the kitchen, meaning the chef of the house is never alone and can cook with company.

If there isn't a natural chef of the group (or if they actually want a holiday out of the kitchen) you may be enticed by the 'à la carte package' available. This optional catering service includes home delivery of five, three-course meals cooked and prepared by our chefs and delivered straight to your door. You can really put that breakfast bar to good use with the daily breakfast bundles delivered as part of this service.

One fantastic thing about the proximity of Le Penthouse Flèche to the town means accessible, convenient activities and family fun at the drop of a hat.
