

Chalet Virmadisa Verbier

What we love...

We love the outdoor terraces, where you can soak up the stunning mountain views by day and cosy up by the fire pit to toast marshmallows and stargaze by night.

A stay at Chalet Virmadisa in Verbier puts you in a prime position for skiing with sweeping mountain views. Located above the village close to the Savoleyres lift station, this luxury ski chalet with an outdoor hot tub and spa area offers elegant alpine style, quick access to the slopes and a peaceful setting for quality time together.

Each morning, you'll enjoy your freshly cooked breakfast while gazing out of the floor-to-ceiling windows to the snowy mountains, while evening brings mesmerising sunsets and mouth-watering pre-dinner canapés by the roaring fire. The two outdoor terraces have been designed for all-day use; soak up the sun in the hot tub in the afternoon, then when night falls, snuggle under a fluffy throw by the fire pit for hot drinks and marshmallow toasting.

Chalet Virmadisa is ideally laid out for multi-generational families. The master bedroom occupies the whole of the charming top floor in the eaves, while the lower ground floor features a choice of doubles/twins and a cute quad bunk room for kids complete with TV snug. Each inviting room has its own en suite shower room. Then there's the separate mazot with its own cosy living area, double bedroom and shower room and balcony – perfect for those seeking a little extra privacy.

Thoughtful bonuses during your stay include a complimentary drinks tray and a ski instructor for the first two days.

Eating

This luxury ski chalet is perfectly set up for sociable and stress-free eating, with a professional chef service and a spacious dining area where everyone can gather around the table.

Start each morning with a delicious cooked and continental breakfast to cater for all tastes, washed down with plenty of coffee or cups of creamy hot chocolate.

Homemade afternoon tea will be waiting for you after a day's skiing and to whet your appetite before dinner, canapés and Champagne will be served by the fire. Dinner is a delicious four-course affair, accompanied by house wines and beers. You'll also have access to a generous drinks tray featuring your favourite spirits.

Afternoon tea and dinner are served six days a week, so on one day you will have the opportunity to cook for yourselves or explore Verbier's top restaurant scene – just ask your concierge to help with recommendations and reservations.

Alternatively, Chalet Virmadisa can also be taken on a self-catered basis.

Chalet Virmadisa

Kids

With its location close to the ski lift, Chalet Virmadisa is a great option for family ski holidays. Verbier has plenty of beginner slopes and the toboggan run in Savoleyres is a must-do.

Back at the chalet kids will love toasting marshmallows over the fire pit on the terrace. They have their own quad bunk room that features a TV snug, perfect for movie nights with siblings or friends.

Early children's suppers are included on six evenings to fill up hungry tummies after all the energy used up on the slopes. Cots and high chairs are available and childcare can be arranged through the concierge.

Location

Chalet Virmadisa can be found in a secluded spot above Verbier's village centre, just a stone's throw from the Savoleyres lift station, so you'll waste no time getting out on the slopes.

A dedicated in-resort 4x4 driver service (8am-1am) makes it even easier to get around.

Geneva airport is approximately 2 hours away.
