

Penthouse Le Lustre Chamonix

What we love...

We love the elegant 'speakeasy' secret bar, its glamorous interior concealed behind a hidden door!

Set in the heart of one of the world's most glamorous towns, this luxury ski chalet offers a chic and stylish retreat that's a perfect match for its upmarket surroundings. Penthouse Le Lustre is a duplex penthouse apartment set at the top of the Pas de Chevre, one of Chamonix's most beautiful and historic buildings, right in the centre of the town.

From the moment you step inside the Art Deco entrance lobby, you're transported to the golden age of glamour, with 1920s and 30s style written all over the glass and chrome fixtures, sunburst mirrors and plush furnishings.

Up the beautiful metal staircase is a stunning open-plan lounge and dining area. Floor-to-ceiling windows which fold back to reveal a spacious terrace, from which you can take in the mountain air over your morning coffee and stargaze at bedtime. All with spectacular panoramic views of the Mont Blanc mountain range itself. Indoors, sofas, armchairs and Corbusier-style loungers provide plenty of space for everyone to relax when they return home each day, as well as a comfortable seat from which to appreciate the amazing views. An elegant dining area seats eight in comfort – the perfect spot to enjoy long, relaxed dinners with good food, good wine and good friends. There's also a smaller table for games, reading or simply sipping a morning coffee. Down in the lobby is another elegant seating area, so there's always somewhere to find a little quiet if you want it.

The property's location, right in the heart of Chamonix, means that when you return from your skiing day, there's lots to keep everyone entertained. You're seconds from all the cafes, bars and boutiques of Chamonix, whether you want to hit the shops or just quietly people watch over a hot chocolate. Penthouse Le Lustre also has its own cinema room if you'd like to enjoy a private afternoon matinee, and a private massage room where you can lie back and have any aches and pains soothed away. There's even a 'speakeasy', a secret bar, behind a hidden door where you can sit at the stylish bar area and enjoy a nightcap before bed.

Three en-suite king-size bedrooms (plus a bunk room sleeping four) offer a luxurious and super-comfy place to rest your head until the smell of coffee and the call of the mountain rouse you from your beds.

Eating

A private chef and/or hostess are available for your stay and food and drink play a huge part in the ethos of Penthouse Le Lustre. You'll wake each morning to the aroma of a delicious breakfast being prepared to tempt you from your bedrooms and set you fair for a day on the snow. On six days, afternoon tea and dinner are both prepared too. Arrive home to the welcoming sight of hot drinks and snacks waiting for you and then relax and enjoy all Penthouse Le Lustre has to offer before a four-course meal in the dining area. Whether you want to be wowed by an imaginative gastronomic feast, enjoy some of the area's local specialities or simply eat good old fashioned comfort food on the sofa, your chef will be only too happy to provide it. On the seventh evening make use of the of the semi-professional kitchen or enjoy one of the wonderful restaurants or bars close by.

An early children's tea can be arranged to suit the little ones' bedtimes.

Catering is very flexible, however. If you prefer to self-cater, the semi-professional kitchen has everything you could need, and you're welcome to hire the chef for a special occasion only if you wish, such as a birthday. Staff will be happy to help
