

Villa Paloma Majorca

What we love...

We love the beautiful mature gardens, which give a real tucked-away feel to the swimming pool and outdoor dining areas.

This luxury villa in Majorca has been created with total relaxation in mind. Press pause on the pressures of everyday life as you step into the wonderfully secluded gardens surrounded by fruit trees, oaks and pines.

Indoor/outdoor living comes easy at Villa Paloma. Spend leisurely afternoons tucking into barbecue lunches in the summer dining area by the pool or under the shade of the chill-out zone, where you'll find comfy sofas and white drapes billowing in the breeze. The impressive swimming pool, complete with built-in Jacuzzi, is the ideal spot for feeling the warmth of the sun on your skin as you laze in the sparkling waters.

Inside this charming and traditional sandstone villa, the design is clean-lined and contemporary, with splashes of quirky artwork from well-known and local artists, pops of colour and wooden beams to offer the perfect amount of character. The open-plan living area is flooded with natural light thanks to the huge windows overlooking the swimming pool, and each of the four en-suite bedrooms is bright and airy. The first-floor master suite boasts a walk-in wardrobe and a private terrace with views out over the lush treetops to the hilly peaks beyond.

Once the kids are in bed, sink into the Jacuzzi for a nightcap or head to the wine snug and unwind with your favourite vintage.
