

Chalet Xanadu Morzine, France

What we love...

We love the secret den up on the top floor, where kids' playtime dreams can come to life with games, books and their own private viewpoint over the Morzine valley.

At this luxury ski chalet in Morzine, guests enjoy glorious views over the Pleney slopes and Pointe de Nyon, plus fresh new facilities including large wraparound balconies, a hidden kids' den, sauna and must-have outdoor hot tub.

Inside Chalet Xanadu, you'll find an elegant and homely Scandi-inspired space that's perfect for families and groups of friends. The rooms, all flooded with sunlight and kitted out in a boho-chic décor, are set over six levels, with plenty of little nooks for quiet time and a generous open-plan living area where everyone can gather by the roaring fire after a day on the slopes. Sink into a comfy cream sofa and look forward to drinks and canapés served in this toasty spot before your chef dishes up fine-dining four-course dinners.

Up on the third floor, Chalet Xanadu's wellness area, featuring a sauna and shower, is topped off with an inviting outdoor hot tub out on the stone-walled terrace. After a busy day, grab a cold bottle of Champagne and ease weary muscles in the warm waters under the stars.

Six stylish and cosy bedrooms offer plenty of flexibility, with five superking rooms (three of which can be split into twins if you require) and a bunk room sleeping eight. Sleek en-suites, plush bed linens and fluffy towels all add to the luxury ski holiday experience.

Eating

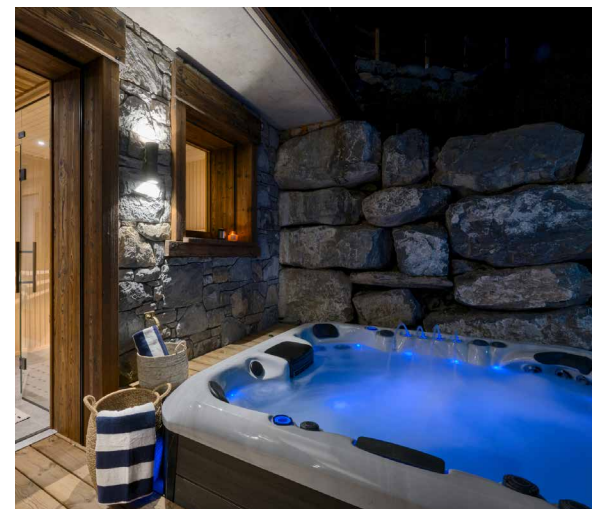

Your private chef and chalet host are on hand during your stay at Chalet Xanadu, making sure tummies are always full and glasses always topped up.

Each morning, enjoy a freshly cooked breakfast while gazing out of the floor-to-ceiling windows to sunny mountain views. A Nespresso machine ensures a proper coffee fix before you head out onto the mountain. When you return to the chalet after a fun few hours outdoors, you'll be greeted by the welcome sight of afternoon tea.

Evenings begin with mouth-watering pre-dinner canapés served by the huge fireplace. The main is a chef-prepared four-course dinner to rival any fine-dining restaurant, with menus designed around your preferences. Naturally, complimentary Champagne, wine, spirits, beers and soft drinks are provided.

Breakfast and afternoon tea are included each day. Canapés and dinner are served five days a week, so you'll have two evenings to explore Morzine's excellent restaurant scene.

If travelling with little ones, your chef will be happy to prepare an earlier children's tea on five evenings.

Chalet Xanadu

Kids

This chalet has been designed with families in mind; on the top floor, the secret den is the stuff of childhood dreams. They can have hours of fun playing games and reading new books, and if extra space is needed, can even spend the night up there as an additional sleeping area.

The separate TV snug comes with Netflix and Amazon, so it's a great spot for movie nights. For the ultimate sleepovers, get all the kids together in their own bunk room and en-suite bathroom with a handy low-height sink for kids.

If you've got fearless kids in tow, head for Lil'sstash at the Stash Avoriaz, where they can take on freestyle experiences in a safe environment. And for non-ski activities, Morzine offers sledging and an excellent aquatic fun park.
