

Domaine De La Trinité Corsica

What we love...

We love the ultra-secluded setting, with lush greenery as far as the eye can see in one direction and the sparkling waters of a remote cove in the other.

Find a feeling of total peace at Domaine de la Trinité, an ultra-private retreat with a simply astounding natural setting and a private path down to a remote beach.

Nestled in six private acres of lush hillside overlooking the sparkling waters of a secluded cove, this is a villa with a sea view and then some. It's rare to come across such a special location in Europe; you'll feel immersed in nature and a million miles from anywhere – and yet remarkably you're just a 10-minute drive from the centre of beautiful Bonifacio.

In keeping with the sense of privacy, this luxury villa in Corsica is made up of three separate dwellings. A traditional stone bergerie ('sheepfold') is the most spacious of the trio, with two rustic-luxe bedrooms, a modern bathroom, bright living area and contemporary kitchen/diner. A hundred metres closer to the coast, two cosy cabin bedrooms perched on huge rocks each have a modern open bathroom and share a hot tub on the decked terrace for warm bubbly soaks in the sunshine.

Outdoor lounges are tucked away in boulder-strewn nooks, a spacious dining table sits poolside awaiting sumptuous meals from the Teppanyaki grill, and nature surrounds you as far as the eye can see. As the light begins to fade, take your last dip of the day in the infinity-edge swimming pool and watch a spectacular sunset with a glass of fizz in hand.

Guests at this luxury villa, also have access to all the facilities of the Version Maquis Citadelle Hotel which is a short drive away. Here you can maintain your fitness levels, relax in the spa area with sauna, Hammam, indoor swimming pool, to name just a few, or enjoy delicious food at the restaurant.

Eating

A delicious breakfast will be delivered to you each day from the Version Maquis Citadelle Hotel. Unpack the goodies on the dining terrace in front of the infinity-edge swimming pool and start the day with breakfast in the sunshine.

While you could cook up leisurely al fresco lunches and locally inspired dinners in the bergerie's modern kitchen, you're likely to make the most of the impressive outdoor stone-walled kitchen, with wood barbecue or where you can try your hand at baking fresh bread and delicious pizzas in the bread oven (use subject to conditions). You're also spoiled for choice with the Teppanyaki grill down by the al fresco dining area alongside the swimming pool.

Domaine de la Trinité guests also have access to the Version Maquis Citadelle Hotel's restaurant, a short drive away.

If you can manage to drag yourself away from this one-off villa, you'll find a range of Mediterranean bars and restaurants down in Bonifacio's lively marina or old town, just a 10-minute drive away.

Kids

Older children will love the sheer amount of space at Domaine de la Trinité. The private but quite steep access to the sea, the infinity-edge swimming pool and the chance to stay in their own cabins located a hundred meters from the stone Bergerie are sure to create lasting memories.

A cot or children's bed can be provided on request.

Location

Set in six private acres of verdant hillside and with private access to an isolated beach just a 15 minute walk away, Domaine de la Trinité has one of the best secluded settings in Corsica.

Yet it's only a 10-minute drive from the centre of Bonifacio where you'll find historical sightseeing, bars and restaurants both in the charming old town and down on the waterfront at the lively marina.

Transfers from Figari Sud Corse airport take approximately 15 minutes.
