

Lum d'Or Spa Chalet Selva Val Gardena

What we love...

We love the heated outdoor infinity swimming pool, where you can soak up majestic mountain views from the Jacuzzi corner.

Surrounded by the beautiful Dolomites in Italy's outdoor paradise of Selva di Val Gardena, this exclusive new mountain oasis has a real focus on wellbeing. This is a place to take time out and recharge; if you're looking for a luxury ski chalet with an outdoor swimming pool and high-spec wellness zone in the midst of nature, Lum d'Or Spa Chalet is sure to delight.

In this secluded private setting, Lum d'Or Spa Chalet certainly lives up to its name, meaning 'Golden Light'. Elegant interiors are bright and airy thanks to the wide picture windows, which make the most of the chalet's location on the sunny side of Selva. Warm wood panelling and soft furnishings create a warm and homely feel. Cosy up by the roaring fire for long leisurely evenings playing games or chatting over a few glasses of South Tyrol wine from the wine fridge, or don one of the chalet's plush robes and fluffy slippers and head out to the heated terrace to breathe in the fresh mountain air.

The wellness zone is a stand-out feature, with a Finnish sauna, Hammam, indoor Jacuzzi and multi-sensory shower, while outside in the garden, the heated infinity swimming pool comes with panoramic mountain views.

This luxury chalet is a true year-round destination. In winter, you have easy access to the vast Dolomiti Superski area for excellent skiing, where you can be guided by a complimentary local ski guide to help you explore the area. In summer, outdoor activities include hiking and biking along scenic mountain and forest trails.
