

Chalet Fôret Meribel

What we love...

We love the private bridge that gives you direct access to the Fôret piste, where you can follow a gentle green run to the Rond-Point area.

When it comes to ski-in/ski-out chalets, it doesn't get much better than having a private bridge to Meribel's Fôret piste, where you can follow a gentle green run to the Rond-Point area.

Arranged over the top three floors of a larger chalet, Chalet Fôret is a traditional alpine home with stunning mountain and valley views. It's the kind of place where family memories are made.

After skiing directly to your door, gather for drinks around the roaring fire in the cosy lounge surrounded by family and friends before your driver whisks you into the village for a delicious dinner. Wake to panoramic mountain views from the master bedroom, take your pick of ski and non-ski activities – snow shoeing, ice-climbing, fat biking and hot-air balloon rides are all on offer nearby – and snuggle up in front of the TV for fondue-and-movie nights.

The chalet's flexible sleeping options are ideal for multiple families or groups of friends; you'll find five double bedrooms, a triple room and a bunk room, each one with its own private en-suite bathroom. When it comes to ski holidays with children, everything from cots to non-slip bath mats can be provided to help you travel as light as possible.
