

Chalet Teredo Verbier

What we love...

We love the modern spa area, with stunning indoor swimming pool, relaxation area with loungers and TV, and outdoor hot tub just outside.

Step inside a mountain retreat where comfort and style have been made a priority and every last detail has been considered. Chalet Teredo is a luxury villa in Verbier, that's an ideal base for a group of up to 10 to explore this wonderful resort.

As soon as you step through the front door, you'll feel the warmth of the welcome. Wander through into the main living room, which is the heart of Teredo, with a roaring fire, squashy sofas and comfy armchairs gathered around it, perfect for curling up with a throw and a glass of wine to catch up with friends after a few hours on the slopes. The cathedralesque vaulted ceilings and huge windows offer mountain views that are nothing short of jaw-dropping.

Just around the corner is a cosy and contemporary dining space, with modern dining furniture and mountain views again, providing a talking point at the table. It's a beautiful space in which to enjoy long, leisurely meals and perhaps to enjoy a few bottles from the chalet's own wine cellar.

Snow enthusiasts will love the location of Teredo, perched just above the lift station, so you can be first out on the powder, but there's lots to keep you busy in your chalet, too. The lower floor is home to a stunning spa area with a 12-metre indoor swimming pool and large relaxation area, with TV, kitchenette and dining space. There's also a beautifully designed Hammam and an outdoor Jacuzzi. You could easily spend all afternoon down in the spa, soothing aching muscles and restoring body and mind. Or you might like to hit the cinema room for popcorn and a movie, sprawled on faux-fur beanbags or comfy seats.

The outdoor spaces have been thoughtfully designed, too. South-facing terraces and balconies get plenty of sunshine, providing a lovely spot to enjoy the views, the mountain air, and maybe a drink or two at one of the many seating and dining spaces, or even the chunky wood swing. Just don't spill your champagne!

Each of the bedrooms has access to its own outdoor space, too, so you can enjoy a quiet coffee with the mountain before you start your day, or perhaps a nightcap last thing, before climbing into super-comfy beds and dreaming sweet dreams.

Eating

The chalet's catering staff will ensure you are always well fed and watered during your stay, from your first fresh coffee of the day to your nightcap right before bed. Local and seasonal produce is key here and you'll wake to a range of locally sourced breakfast ingredients each morning, from healthy fresh fruit platters, smoothies and muesli, to more indulgent hearty cooked breakfasts.

When you return from the mountain, afternoon tea is served by the open fire; hot drinks and treats to warm you through and maybe a glass of champagne to perk you up ready for the evening.

You'll enjoy canapés and cocktails, before your evening meal arrives. All of Teredo's chefs hail from Michelin-starred restaurants around the world and bring a wealth of talent to your table. They're also completely flexible, so whether you want six-course tasting menus matched with wines, simple bistro suppers or something a little different such as an Asian night.

On top of the house wines, there are more than 80 'upgrade' wines and champagnes on the wine list, and the staff work with top mixologists to create bespoke cocktails for you to enjoy, too.
