

Chalet Alpurio Dolomites

What we love...

We love the abundant outdoor space that celebrates the natural beauty of the Dolomites. It's the perfect spot to enjoy a morning coffee whilst listening to the romantic trickle of the outdoor stream.

Chalet Alpurio is an oasis nestled in the heart of the Dolomites in Selva di Val Gardena. This brand new, for the 2023 summer season, chalet is guaranteed to exceed any expectations. An adventure is waiting for you here in every season, with unrivalled views of the incredible Sassolungo, Sella Group and Sciliar Massif peaks where you can watch the seasonal colours change. With spellbinding walks in the summer and accessible pistes in the winter.

Built with privacy at the forefront, this chalet is spread over three floors. Space is abundant at Chalet Alpurio, with 600 m² of pure luxury on the inside, and a staggering 700 m² of relaxation space in the manicured garden. The space is warm and homely, despite its grandeur. Imagine cuddling up in front of the romantic fireplace with your other half, or escaping with your friends for an evening in the home cinema corner. There is a dedicated fitness room with state-of-the-art technology and a zen yoga corner with a spacious leisure area with a private bar where you can spend your evenings playing games of roulette and billiards with your loved ones.

Every detail is thought through, from the sprawling lounge sofas in the wellness suite, to the outdoor swimming pool with Jacuzzi jets framed by the peaks. Watch your kids splash around whilst you sit listening to the idyllic trickle of the stream that runs through the garden. Chalet Alpurio is all about the panoramic views, and the terrace celebrates this. Each of the bedrooms opens onto the outdoors, why don't you wander out into the garden, coffee in hand, and watch the sun rise.

The wellness and spa areas include a sauna, steam room, Jacuzzi, fitness and yoga area and a separate massage room. Centred around a large comfort sofa, the wooden décor framed by the subtle colours and black walls give an almost futuristic Japanese feel to the zen zone. Unique relaxation showers will help you soothe your tired muscles after a day out exploring nature.

Throughout your stay, the chalet's private chalet manager is at your disposal, serving up a delicious gourmet breakfasts and afternoon snacks to welcome you home after your days adventures.

The meaning of Alpurio is "Pure as the Alps", and the space and service are designed to make you feel at peace in your surroundings.
