

Park Villa Geneva

What we love...

We love the location of this villa, enjoying lakeside views, a private beach, private forest, and also proximity to the city.

If you're looking for a luxury villa in Geneva, they don't come much more special than this. Park Villa is set on the edge of Lake Geneva, with its own private jetty, boat dock and garage so you can enjoy exploring this beautiful area from the water.

The villa is set within private parklands and forests, making it feel truly private and giving everyone plenty of space to roam. The outdoor spaces have been carefully thought out to offer everyone exactly what they need, from a playground for the kids to lake-view dining spots around the house.

Inside the villa, there's plenty of room for everyone to find their own space to just 'be' as well as to gather with friends. The cosy living room with fireplace and local artworks, opens out onto a terrace and outdoor eating area. Nearby is a sophisticated dining space and a spacious top-of-the-range kitchen where you can spend time cooking with local ingredients and chatting to friends. When you need a little time to yourself, escape to the swimming pool, with its delightful bar area, or to the games room.

Park Villa has six bedrooms, many of which are en-suite with walk-in Italian showers, stocked with luxury linens and towels, bathrobes and slippers. You have the feeling of staying in a five-star hotel here, but with all the intimacy of a private house.

Staff are on hand daily to help with any extras you require. So, all you need to do is relax and enjoy this rather beautiful villa in a magical location.
