What we love...

We love the bright, airy open plan living space, perfectly laid out for entertaining, family meals, and movie nights by the fire.

Bright, homely, and elegantly decorated in warm neutral tones, this luxury ski apartment in Verbier is a cosy yet spacious retreat for smaller groups of family and friends. Just minutes from the buzzing Place Centrale and the main lift station, Kings Parc 115 is superbly located for exploring the vibrant resort centre. The beautiful oak floors and contemporary furnishings lend the apartment an air of understated luxury, while the French doors flood it with natural light.

Start your days at Kings Parc 115 by taking a coffee out onto the south-facing balcony, where chairs covered in fur throws provide the perfect spot for you to take in the fresh mountain air. Collect your equipment from the shared ski room and head to the slopes, just a short 5 minute walk away.

After a day of exploring Verbier's extensive ski area, Kings Parc 115's inviting open plan living space welcomes you with its central glass-panelled fireplace, where you can warm your toes while sipping a hot drink. Reminisce about the day's adventures over a hearty home-cooked meal in the dining area, before retreating to the enormous L-shaped sofa to watch a film.

The apartment sleeps six guests in three charming double bedrooms, each decorated in an exquisite alpine style and possessing its own private or en-suite bathroom. Two even have balcony access, so you can steal a peek at the starry mountain skies before bed. Ideal for families or small groups of friends, Kings Parc 115 makes a delightful setting to your luxury ski holiday.
