

Chalet Juno Val d'Isere

What we love...

We love the relaxing spa area, with sauna, Jacuzzi and indoor swimming pool.

Set in the heart of Val d'Isère, this magical mountain retreat offers a warm welcome and a relaxed atmosphere. Chalet Juno is a luxury ski chalet, which has been carefully designed using rough-hewn woods, stone and other natural materials, which together create a homely feel to this stylish property.

In the cosy living space, huge windows frame the mountain views, and a roaring fire and comfy sofas makes you feel instantly cosy; the perfect spot to gather with friends for good wine, good conversation, maybe even a game of chess! Throughout the communal spaces, statement lighting and modern art bring contemporary character to the traditional Alpine style. The modern dining area is a great space in which to enjoy family meals prepared by your welcoming host and feels beautifully cosy in the evenings under the twinkling lights.

On chilly afternoons, once you've been warmed through by afternoon tea, there's plenty to keep you busy at Chalet Juno. You could make popcorn and all pile into the home cinema room for a movie matinee. Or perhaps head down to the spa area, with sauna and Jacuzzi to help soothe slopes-weary limbs, and an azure swimming pool where you'll feel life's everyday stresses simply floating away.

After an afternoon's rest and relaxation and simple but delicious food, accompanied by some very good wine, you'll be ready to retire. Each of Juno's bedrooms has its own spa-style en-suite and is kitted out with fluffy robes and slippers and luxury bath products to help you wind down at the end of each adventure-filled day.

Eating

Chalet Juno offers a 'relaxed catered' service which is a great option for families and laid-back groups of friends. Meals are cosy affairs, prepared by your friendly host, but with a low-key, relaxed feel.

In the mornings, a continental breakfast will be prepared for you, with a different cooked option each day for those who prefer something more substantial. When you return from the slopes later, afternoon tea and cakes are laid out waiting to warm you through.

Enjoy a drink and pre-dinner nibbles in the early evening while your host prepares a family meal for you, including a cheese course, all served alongside carefully chosen house wines and Perrier-Jouët champagne. Soft drinks and spirits are also on tap from the bar.

Your host can prepare a separate children's tea in the early evening for any younger visitors who might need an early night.

On the staff night off, you'll be able to explore some of the excellent eateries in Val d'Isère; just ask your host if you'd like help with recommendations and making bookings.
